Psalm 39: 4-6

4“Lord, help me to know how fleeting my time on earth is.

Help me to know how limited is my life and that I’m only here but for a moment more.

5 What a brief time you’ve given me to live!

Compared to you my lifetime is nothing at all!

Nothing more than a puff of air, I’m gone so swiftly.

So too are the grandest of men;

they are nothing but a fleeting shadow!”

Pause in his presence

6 We live our lives like those living in shadows.

Psalm 39: 6

All our activities and energies are spent for things that pass away.

We gather, we hoard, we cling to our things,

only to leave them all behind for who knows who.

Psalm 39: 7

And now, God, I’m left with one conclusion:

my only hope is to hope in you alone!
